Current Issues Affecting Michigan Local Governments: Gathering the Opinions of Hard-to-Reach Residents

DATE & TIME:
March 28, 2018 from 1-2pm

LOCATION:
Online webinar link will be sent out following registration.

A recording of the webinar will be sent out to those who register for the program.

COST:
Free

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:
Elected and appointed officials at all levels of local government, as well as interested local government staff and residents.

DESCRIPTION:
Join us to hear from Tom Miller, President and CEO of National Research Center, Inc about how to gather opinions from hard to reach residents. Tom will talk about how to seek input that is representative of your entire community.

HOW TO REGISTER
https://events.anr.msu.edu/ResidentOpinions/

CONTACT:
Eric Walcott—walcott3@anr.msu.edu; 517-353-9106

SPONSORS:
Michigan Association of Counties, Michigan Townships Association, MSU Extension Center for Local Government Finance and Policy

MSU is an affirmative-action, equal-opportunity employer, committed to achieving excellence through a diverse workforce and inclusive culture that encourages all people to reach their full potential. Michigan State University Extension programs and materials are open to all without regard to race, color, national origin, gender, gender identity, religion, age, height, weight, disability, political beliefs, sexual orientation, marital status, family status or veteran status. Persons with disabilities have the right to request and receive reasonable accommodations.
Additional Event Information

March 2018—Gathering the Opinions of Hard-to-Reach Residents

Presentation by:
- Tom Miller, Ph.D., President and CEO of National Research Center, Inc.

Potential Future Topics
- Assessing and Addressing Local Service Needs
- Road and Transportation Funding
- Public Engagement on “Wicked” Issues
- Strategic Planning in Local Government
- Fiscal Sustainability
- Engaging the Public in the Budget Process